About our verification process

The following shows the revision(s) made to your file as a result of our verification. If you still question an item, then you may want to contact the source of the information.

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act states that you may:

- request a description of how we verified the information, including the business name and address contacted and the telephone number if reasonably available;
 - add a statement disputing the accuracy or completeness of the information; and
 - request that we send these results to organizations who have reviewed your credit report in the past two years for employment purposes or six months for any other purpose (twelve months for residents of Colorado, Maryland, and New York).
- If no information follows, our response appeared on the previous page.

By law, we cannot disclose certain medical information (relating to physical, mental, or behavioral health or condition). Although we do not generally collect such information, it could appear in the name of a data furnisher (i.e., "Cancer Center") that reports your payment history to us. If so, those names display in your report, but in reports to others they display only as MEDICAL PAYMENT DATA. Consumer statements included on your report at your request that contain medical information are disclosed to others.
